

THE FRIENDS OF FORT WORDEN STATE PARK ARE CELEBRATING - AND EVERYONE IS INVITED!

ANNUAL MEETING AND PARTY

April 20, 2018

5:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Company B, Fort Worden Commons

Fort Worden State Park

Featured Speaker: Brian Cladoosby—Swinomish Indian Tribal Community Chairman

Topic: Where the Waters Converge: How Historic Gathering Places Shaped Tribal Traditions

Brian Cladoosby is one of the most senior tribal political leaders in Washington State and the Pacific Northwest. He has been president of both the National Congress of American Indians and the Association of Washington Tribes. He is Co-Speaker of the Coast Salish Gathering, which comprises British Columbia First Nations and Western Washington Tribes. Mr. Cladoosby's hour-long talk, from 6:30 to 7:30, will provide a better understanding of how historic gathering places, such as areas around Fort Worden State Park and Admiralty Inlet, shaped tribal traditions and continue to play a role in tribal goals and policies.

Appetizers, no-host bar, silent auction

Free for members; $5 for nonmembers

Generous support for this event was provided by Windermere Real Estate Port Townsend

Windermere
REAL ESTATE
Agents of Good Roots

Our mission: To support the preservation and enhancement of Fort Worden State Park as a recreational, historical, educational and natural resource.

Friends of Fort Worden State Park • membership@fwfriends.org • www.fwfriends.org

