

PORT TOWNSEND SCHOOL OF
WOODWORKING

Fort Worden PDA
January 29th, 2020

PTSW-Our History

- Founded in 2007 by Tim Lawson, Jim Tolpin, and John Marckworth
- First classes in Fall '07 at Fort Worden building 315
 - 80+ students in 6 courses

PTSW-Our Mission

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

PTSW-Our Impact

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

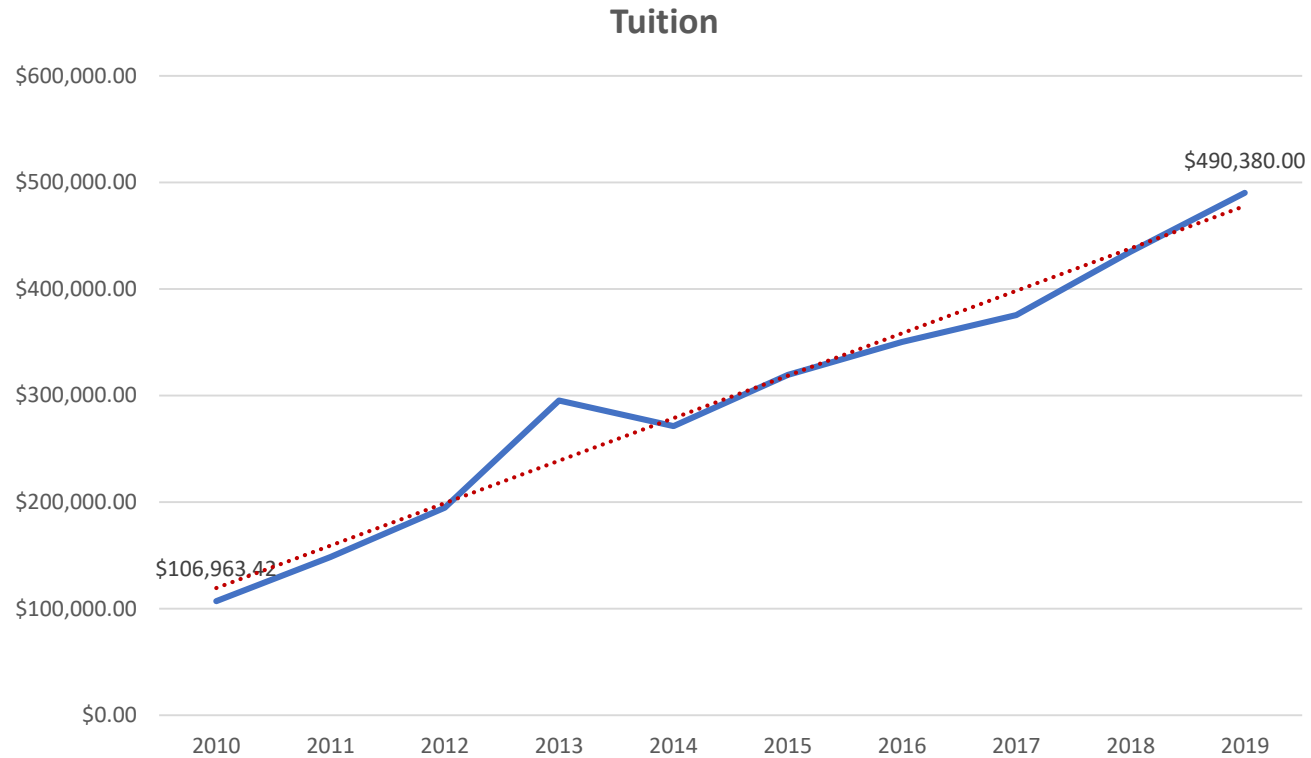

PTSW-Our Impact

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

PTSW-Our Impact

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

PTSW-What We Teach

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

Four Types of Classes:

- Skill Specific
- Project Specific
- Sequential Furniture Intensives
 - Instructor Specific

PTSW-What We Teach

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

- Skill Specific:
 - Cutting Dovetails
 - Using Handtools
 - Traditional Finishes

PTSW-What We Teach

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

- Project Specific:
 - Windsor Chair
 - Side Table
 - Timber Frame

PTSW-What We Teach

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

- Sequential Furniture Intensives:
 - Foundations (Level 1)
 - Intro to Furniture (Level 2)
 - Art of Furniture (Level 3)

PTSW-What We Teach

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

- Instructor Specific
 - Mike Pekovich
 - Katie Hudnall
 - Jarrod Dahl
 - Jim Tolpin (PT)
 - Helga Winter (PT)

PTSW-What's on the Horizon

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

- Strategic Planning
 - Hired Jake Beattie (NW Maritime Center) as our consultant
 - Redefine organizational values
 - Set 3-5 goals
 - Completed by April of 2020
- Optimize Fort Worden Campus
 - Decide about Makers Square
 - Figure out housing solutions for students
 - Finalize leases with PDA
- Build Organizational Infrastructure
 - Build out development program
 - Invest in faculty training and development
 - Build internal systems to allow for continued growth

PTSW-How can you help?

Our mission is to inspire a lifelong passion for craftsmanship through education in woodworking and traditional building trades.

1. Think about partnerships and relationships with PTSW that would be useful
2. Help us optimize Fort Worden
3. Take a course!

PTSW-Questions? Comments?

